A dispatch from Osgood, Ind., says:

"A hog belonging to William Dopp, proprietor of the Ripley House here, Thursday went into the rear of Eckert's hardware store and ate about a quart of nitro-glycerine. He then went into Raw's livery stable and was kicked by a horse, when he exploded, blowing the hog to fragments and slightly damaging the stable and blowing hog bristles through a three-inch board." Cincinnati Enquirer.

When crops are looking fine, Grass is looking as green as in the month of June.—Charlotte Mercury.

Tom Bowling.

The Jessamine Journal says: The once noted race horse, Tom Bowling, winner of many of the great stake events of his day and the pride of his owner, the late Price McGrath, passed through Nicholasville, Tuesday en route to Garrard county, the home of his new owner, Mr. Dick McGrath. Tom Bowling has been owned by Mr. S. C. Lyne, of Bauman, for several years, and through respect to the memory of the dead turfman, Mr. Price McGrath, Mr. Lyne has presented the renowned old racer to his nephew, Mr. Dick McGrath, of Garrard county. The old hero was looking vigorous and you would scarcely take him to be more than 10 years of age, though he is past two score.

At Column Rates.

We wonder how much Mr. Halstead pays the Commercial Gazette for printing his daily advertisements over the name under the head of correspondence. It appears daily next to reading matter.—Louisville Post.

John H. Mason, one of the best known farmers and business men in this entire section, executed a deed of assignment on Thursday to Mr. A. A. Haezlerig, a prominent attorney of this city. Mr. Mason's individual debts could have been handled without difficulty, but his generous disposition would not allow him to say so, to a friend, and consequently he found himself so deeply involved in others that in order to protect his own creditors and save himself from absolute ruin by having his property forced on the market during the present depressed state of business, he was driven to this step. Mr. Mason's assets under any favorable condition of the money market, far exceed his liabilities, and we, together with his wide circle of friends in this part of the State, hope soon to see him out of his difficulties. He is a thrifty, energetic and upright business man who will pay every dollar he owes or has bound himself for. During the past year he has, beside liquidating part of his own obligations, paid over eight thousand dollars of security debts, and would, if granted the time he asked for, have satisfied every creditor in full. He will do it yet. But just now there is no fixed value to property, and to have it forced on the market, simply meant personal ruin and a loss to his creditors. We were associated in business with John Mason for nearly two years and know him to be as honest as any man who lives, and we have full faith that he will come out of all his difficulties before any great length of time.

One of our city papers hears of some anonymous letters that "breathed out threats of dynamite and were ornamented with crude drawings of skulls, cross bones, etc.," directed to Mr. Z. T. Young, an attorney at this bar. If Mr. Young has received any such letters, the writer is infinitely wiser than the man to whom they are directed, let the latter be so bad as he may be pictured by the former. The devil is at his old tricks again, possibly.

City Attorney James Butler, of St. Louis, who was summoned before Mayor Walbridge to answer six charges, and to show cause why he should not be removed from office, walked out of the Mayorality court and left his defense to take care of itself. Butler's latest exploit was the shooting of James Leary in a bawdy-house, over a dispute regarding a cage.

Another Crank.

Rev. E. H. Beardsley a Methodist preacher and evangelist, pleaded guilty in Criminal Court at Birmingham, Ala., Tuesday, to grand larceny, and will be sent to the mines. Last spring he conducted a revival at Pratt City, where are located the mines in which the convicts work. Shortly afterward he stole a suit of clothes from a store. These he returned. He seems to think he is called to work among the convicts and took this method of getting there.

The Senate on Friday confirmed the nomination of Messrs. S. B. Holmes for Postmaster at Frankfort; J. W. Rout for Postmaster at Stanford; and C. P. Weaver for Postmaster at Louisville.

Robbing The Farmer.

Under robber tariffs wheat has dropped from $1.47 per bushel in 1872 to 50 cents in 1893, and in that time cotton has dropped from 14 cents a pound to 7 cents.—Hopkinsville News Era.

The Monarch Milling Company, of this city, has contracted to put in the Richmond City system, which will greatly improve its milling facilities. The expense of putting in these improvements will be about six thousand dollars, and when completed, this will be second to none in grade. These will enable the mill to make better flour, and a more universal grade. Besides this its capacity will be increased from seventy-five to one hundred and twenty-five barrels a day, and the cost per day will not be materially changed. This outlay of money, considering quantity and quality of flour, and the expense of making it is according to business principles, and we congratulate the managers of this company upon their enterprise. It has been that merchants of Mt. Sterling have been purchasing flour from other localities, but after this all their purchases can be made at home, and the flouring companies will be enabled to fill their orders on demand. It would be no bad idea for the milling companies to buy up all the wheat raised in this locality, manufacture it and leave all of its products at home.

Took the Medicine, but Made a Wry Face Over It.

The unenviable task of introducing a petition in favor of the passage of the Wilson bill fell to Senator Hoar last week. It was signed by twenty-four labor organizations of Massachusetts, and urged the passing of the bill.

"These gentlemen," said the Senator with some sarcasm, "are very much interested in the reduction of the hours of labor and the passage of the Wilson bill will prevent any hours of labor at all."

A St. Joseph special says: The Bullington "Eli," leaving this city at 8:25 p.m., was held up about three miles east of St. Joseph by five masked men Wednesday night. The train was stopped by tarpedoes being placed on the track and a red lantern swung across the road. Three of the robbers boarded the engine with drawn revolvers and ordered the engineer and fireman to accompany them to express car and order express messenger to open the door. This they did. Three others, with revolvers in each hand, had entered the car, and the messenger was ordered to open the safe. He did so. The robbers then took all there was in the safe, which amount is claimed by the railroad officials not to exceed $50.

Railroad Meeting.

The Hazel Green Herald reports a meeting of the citizens of Maytown looking to the extending of encouragement and aid in the building of the proposed railroad from Rothwell to Caney coal fields, and among other things does the following resolution was passed:

"Resolved, That it is the purpose of this meeting that those present, and all other citizens of Maytown and vicinity, extend a hearty welcome to said railroad company, and will use every effort in their power to secure the right of way for said road, also the stone and timber along the line."

The New Departure.

The action taken by some of the leading merchants of this place in changing to invariable and unchangeable cash terms, is a step in the right direction. Pay for what you get as you get it, is certainly better. If it had been more strictly observed in the past both would have been better off. Many other of our merchants are offering very special inducements to cash buyers, and no doubt they will find their customers very glad to take advantage of the lower prices for the money.

The day when a promiscuous credit business will be done in this section we think is probably past. The severe lesson we have received by reason of the times through which we are passing, will, we hope, teach us all the salutary lesson of paying more nearly for what we buy when we buy it. It may be a little hard for some of us who have all our lives long been used to making a draft on the future for the needs of the present, to come to a strictly cash basis, but we will all be better for the doing it. We have this pointer to give to our readers, viz., watch the columns of the ADVOCATE and you will find those merchants speaking through it who have special bargains to offer buyers in their several lines.

The Why Of It.

Judge Van B. Young, of the Superior Court, who died something more than a year ago, was used to tell of meeting an old lady who was one of the pioneers of Bath County, and asking her how it happened that the earlier Kentucky families were so noted for strength and hardihood. He told her he could not understand it since the exposure they endured was calculated to have a different effect. "Not so," said the old lady, "They lived in unchinked log cabins, slept on beds of leaves where the snow could drift in upon them, and where rain could drip down through the rough clap-boards. They were bare foot nearly all the time, and were scantily supplied with food. That hardened them," she said "and it was a survival of the fittest, for all the puny ones died."—Helen T. Stanton in Louisville Post.

A strange political fight is being organized in Denver Colorado. Ever since Colorado gave women the right of suffrage the Women's Christian Temperance Association has been actively engaged in getting its members and Sympathizers to register, for the purpose of fighting the liquor law. To offset this the German-American Society has caused its women and friends, to be registered to the number of 2,000 during the past month. The fight promises to be bitter.

Two Assignments.

Mr. Joseph Turley assigned to W. T. Fitzpatrick, on Thursday last, Mr. Turley is an active business man, who has many friends who will be glad to see him well out of his difficulties. On Thursday, Mr. William Spencer, a prominent farmer of the county, also assigned to R. C. Robinson. Assets and liabilities not given in either case.

An International Exhibition of grand proportions to be held at Atlanta, Ga., is being agitated. Its object is to bring together all of the agricultural and mechanical products of the South, and introduce them to the world. Mexico heartily endorses it and will contribute. It is the idea of this regular friends to push their products into the United States.

Circuit Court.

Montgomery Circuit Court convened Monday. Judge John E. Cooper and Commonwealth Attorney C. W. Nesbitt were on hand ready to attend to the duties of their respective offices.

Judge Cooper delivered a charge to the grand jury, reciting their duties and bringing before their minds the entire catalogue of crime known to the law, and placed the interests of this community into the hands of the grand jury.

The following named gentlemen composing the jury, having been selected by the jury commissioners appointed at the last term of the Court, answered their names:

GRAND JURY.

Esq. J. W. Richardson, Barney Carter, Marshall Matthews, Samuel Estis, W. H. Moore, Samuel Green, James Donovan, A. J. Ware, D. D. Hurd, John J. Anderson, John T. Magowan, and James Johnson. Mr. John J. Anderson was appointed foreman by the Court.

PETIT JURY.

Seth Combs, William Morton, J. C. Turley, Robert Fletcher, George Kimball, W. L. Morris, John Belmont, N. M. Boon, John Pegg, John Corbett, T. C. Graves, John McGilgaw, W. P. Drake, Alvin Thomas, E. L. Bramlett, J. J. Robinson, Zera Welch, Frank Gibbons, Frank Murphy, Joseph Stephens, John Knox, George C. Smith, J. H. Anderson, and H. C. Hurd.

Ordinary appearances will be called to-day and equity cases Wednesday. Visiting attorneys present at the beginning of the Court: Hampton Bush, Winchester; H. L. Stone, Louisville; William Young, Morehead; J. H. Wilburn, Frenchburg.

What tampering boots left to our people, the Columbia Finance and Trust Company, Trustee of the New Farmers Bank, seems bent on sweeping away from us. Of course no one will accuse any one of those immaculate, yclept attorneys, of urging on any or all of the needless litigation that may or may not have been indulged in. Some people evidently think they have a good-sized eye of world in a sling and can afford to indulge in Mr. Vanderbilt's forbore, if not polite aphorism, "the public be damned!"

John Tyree, formerly of this county, present at W. T. Tyler with a pair of buck's teeth, which measured 18 inches from head to tip and same in width. Mr. Tyree killed this buck and three others in Wisconsin.

THE ADVOCATE.

European farmers find that grade draught mares are the most profitable farm stock to do the farm work and raise a good colt.

An English officer, being hypnotized in South Africa, began to speak in Welsh, which he had known as a child but forgotten for twenty years.

The idea of an ancient tropical continent at the South pole, uniting South America, Madagascar and Australia, is arousing considerable interest and discussion in scientific circles.

Professor Elton Thompson says that umbrellas with brass chains hanging from the ends of the ribs makes a complete protection when held over the head during a thunder storm.

A break in the main water pipe in a street in Timbuctoo, Ariz., last week, was found to have been caused by the roots of a tree which had grown around the pipe and crushed it so that it burst.

The rudder of the Oward steamship Campana consists of a single plate of steel twenty-two by eleven feet six inches and one and one-fourth inches thick. It was rolled at Krupp's German Gun factory.

In the eighty-eight years from 1800 to 1888 the world mined 7942 tons of gold, $5,550,000 of silver, $4,900,000 of copper, $4,000,000 of lead, $1,600,000 of zinc, 1,400,000 of tin, 1,273,000,000 of iron and 10,501,000,000 of coal.

To preserve a youthful appearance as long as possible, it is indispensable that the hair should retain its natural color and fullness. There is no preparation so effective as Ayer's Hair Vigor. It prevents baldness, and keeps the scalp clean, cool and healthy.

"Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer" by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful medicine so invigorates the system and enriches the blood that cold weather becomes positively enjoyable. Arctic explorers would do well to make a note of this.

A new pneumatic tire brought out in England, which is described as a regular good thing, has a pad of prepared cotton, wool covered with soft oil, which is inserted between the cover and air chamber, rendering it almost impossible to puncture it even with a sharp awl. The weight of this pad is 50 ounces, and the cost is trifling.

Valuable discoveries of petroleum have been made in Peru, South America. The British steaming company has been chartered to load refined oil at Payto on the Pacific coast. It will be sent to San Francisco and also to all points on the north-west coast. This, including British Columbia, has heretofore been supplied with oil refined by the Standard Oil Company. This market, at least, is likely to be taken from it. The supply of oil is inexhaustible and it is very near the Pacific coast.

Generally speaking, the rivers flowing into the Mississippi from the east slope on the average about two inches per mile. Those entering it from the west have an average descent of about six inches per mile. The average descent per mile of the Missouri after it leaves the mountains is reckoned at about a foot; the Des Moines, from its source to its confluence with the Mississippi, about 7.3 inches. The entire length of the Ohio shows a fall of seven inches. The Mississippi, from the mouth of the Ohio to the Gulf, has a fall of about two and a half inches.

Let it run, and your cough may end in something serious. It is pretty easy to find your blood is poor. That is just the line and condition that invites consumption. The seeds are sown and it has fastened its hold on you, before you know that it is so.

It won't do to trifle and delay. When the remedy is at hand. Every disorder that can be reached through the blood yields to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. For Severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Throat, and Lung Diseases, Asthma, Scrofula in every form, and even the Scrofulous affection of the lungs that's called Consumption, in all its earlier stages, it is a positive and complete cure.

It is the only blood-purifier, strength-restorer, and flesh-builder so effective that it can be guaranteed. It doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

ADVOCATE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

TUESDAY, JAN. 16, 1894.

It is authoritatively announced in Frankfort that Dr. J. D. Clardy, of Christian county, will be a candidate for Congress from the Second district at the next election.

Mr. John B. Weller's bill regarding the publication and distribution of obscene literature, pictures, etc., was passed by a unanimous vote in the State Senate Thursday.

The comfortable cash balance of $250,000,000 in their vaults, it would seem should make the New York Bankers very happy and contented. They are not, though, it appears.

The executive branch of the Government has turned over to Congress the settlement of the Hawaiian question. Here's hoping it may die a quiet death in the Committee-room.

The nomination of J. Scott Harrison, ex-President's brother, to be Surveyor of Customs at Kansas City, encountered the opposition of the Missouri Senators, and the Committee on Commerce has reported against confirmation.

Thomas H. Carter, on Thursday, assigned the chairmanship of the Executive Committee of the National Republican Committee, and Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, was elected to the vacancy. Mr. Carter, however, still remains Chairman of the National Committee.

Hon. Evan E. Settle, of Owen county, has formally announced in a card, in the Owensboro Herald, his candidacy for the Democratic nomination to the Seventeenth congressional district now represented by Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge. Mr. Settle's age, of course, ability and great popularity.

The Ways and Means Committee Friday decided to report that portion of the Tariff Bill relating to the Internal revenue as a separate independent bill. The vote was 6 to 5, and the result was reached by Representative Bland, charging the position previously taken by him. His action was due to his belief that if the income tax proposition were attached to the Tariff Bill the passage of the latter would be endangered.

The Montgomery County Times is out in an article arraigning Senator Lindsay for alleged treachery to Albion, of that county, late an assistant collector of the Seventh Revenue district of Kentucky. "Months since, heard this story with variations, but of it truth or falsehood we know nothing. The Times, however, claims that he has 'seen the record,' and knows whereof it speaks."

The reports of the commercial agencies this week bring intelligence of the most encouraging nature. Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says that a movement in the direction of an expansion in the volume of business has appeared, and that the pessimism which swung in one direction from May last year until 1893 should be swinging in the opposite direction. Reports from the leading business-centers are full of encouragement, and the general feeling is that from now on the improvement will be pronounced.—Courier-Journal.

The customs authorities at San Francisco, assisted by special frontier agents, have incriminated a gigantic smuggling scheme employing three vessels at least in its workings. George Weinman, a prominent dealer of that city, and Louis Greenwald, of Victoria, B. C., are in the county Jail, charged with smuggling 1500 pounds of opium and 13 Chinese ashore on the northern coast in September.

The Republican National Committee was in session at Washington City last Thursday, and were very jubilant over the political outlook. They do not feel that the Democrats will be able to correct the bad management of their administration. It is due to have the full confidence of the people, and unless business is fully resumed, they have little fear of defeat in '96. They are hoping and praying for business perplexities if it will only restore the administration to them. These are Republican articles. The opposition is not in the least before the committee, were finances and the establishment of committee headquarters. They were between the New York and Washington City.

Striking Back.

The Columbia Finance and Trust Company will find itself defendant in at least one suit within the next few days. This is an outcome of its intense eagerness to press (or oppress) our people with what, in the judgment of those who are in position to know, are unnecessary suits. Mr. W. N. Anderson was downer a note $350, which he was ready to pay, but could not do so because the Trust Company was in a dispute with a former attorney of the New Farmers' Bank, who held the note, as to which should collect it. Mr. A. was warned by both the Trust Company and the attorney not to pay the other. In the mean time the property of the maker of the note had been attached by another party upon some grounds we do not remember what, and the Trust Company swooped down upon and attached Mr. Anderson also, when he is amply able to pay the note fifty times over. If the facts are as represented to us, the Columbia Finance and Trust Co., Trustees, should be taught a lesson.

It is bad enough for our people to have to stand all that may legitimately come to them these hard times, without having this concern, that cares not one whit for the interests of this section, attempt to run things without regard to law and right. We hear of several silly answers that are to be filed to other suits that have been brought. This Company may yet find that the Courts are able to put a limit to its aggressions.

About the Game and Fish Interests of Kentucky.

The last issue of the American carried "About the Game and Fish Interests of Kentucky" by one of our local sportsmen has attracted considerable attention.

An American writes us a heartily welcome, and our writer has to say, "I would suggest that instead of publishing hunting for two or three years of any other length of time, the hunting gun but employed every land owner or person in whose possession the land is, with police authority to arrest trespassers and close the line at not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense. The party upon whom the line is imposed to pay same to be placed at hard labor till the fine shall have been paid at 50 cents a day. The first offenders will then, they say and I believe, punish their friends and streams, in a single year. Unless police powers are given land owners, tramps and irresponsible negroes who all that could possibly be done to suppress our fields, forests and streams, since no one can know how many of them are trespassing. It would only mean one reason for overlooking and give the land owners, the hunted birds, as they lay and rest, a year's rest."

An Angry Judge.

James L. Wills, editor of "The People's Voice," with a writ to appear before Judge Cantrell at Frankfort on Wednesday morning. It is reported that around Frankfort and the grand jury, at the time, had sent out a list of names of unknown even by the judge. Wills' presence was desired by the grand jury. It seems that he had asked this piece of business. The first judge called him to the bar and proceeded of the case. Mr. Wills explained that he was a member of the court, and the judge proceeded to him to distinguish between legitimate news and that which was under the courts in the way. Then upon he dismissed him.

Mr. Wills may possibly have been making an dangerous ground, but it is a question that Judge Cantrell is not a member of the court. It is true that newspapers are running dangerously near the edge in their wild scramble for news. But a judge who tackles a newspaper publishing a item of news is something more than another piece of this country are seriously injured, it is the "freedom of the press."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, 1894.

The Hawaiian question and the new Tariff Bill are the sole topic of conversation at the capital city. There was an important conference at the White House yesterday in regard to the Hawaiian affair. It started about 10 o'clock with a consultation between the President and Secretary Lamont. Half an hour later Secretary Sherman joined them, and soon after Secretary Carlisle and Attorney-General Olney entered the cabinet-room. The conference lasted several hours and was devoted exclusively to the consideration of the Hawaiian complication, as fully disclosed in the official report of Minister Willis, which arrived Thursday night. The matter is now before Congress and will be disposed with by that body, the President having exhausted his powers.

The Tariff Bill was taken up Monday in the House, and is being debated. The Republicans are fighting it for all they are worth, but it is generally believed that the bill will be passed by the House, with very few changes. But when it gets to the Senate it is thought that it will be very materially cut up. The bill has some weak points as well as all other measures, but as a whole it is an instrument of vital importance and benefit to the masses. One member of the House, a Democrat, steel manufacturer, will make a strong fight to get steel out of the free list. The sugar bounty will also be handled without gloves, and an effort made to wipe it out altogether.

Mr. Lisle, our new member from the Tenth District, is not only becoming very popular, but he is gaining a reputation as a worker. He was sick all during the holidays; but as soon as Congress reconvened he was one of the first to be there. He is not in ill health, but by no means. He is already gaining the reputation of being one of the bravest men in the House. When he speaks his words are felt, and they count. Kentucky and the Tenth district should well feel proud of their selection of Mr. Lisle, as their Representative.

In the opinion of your correspondent, it will not be many months before there will be a post-office building in the city of Mt. Sterling. It has been pushed by different Representatives; but it is now in the hands of a man, whom your correspondent thinks will get it through, not discounting his predecessors, however, in their labors to that end.

Within the next year I think there will be quite a change in the appearance of some of the vacant lots in Mt. Sterling, and in the Tenth district as a whole.

It is thought, and I get it from good authority, that Mr. Cleveland will appoint a public printer soon, and also that Mr. McAbee, of Chicago, will be the lucky man. Mr. McAbee is one of those Democrats who believes in "the victor belong to the spoils," and if he is appointed, there will be several hundred vacancies in the printing office to be filled out to good Democratic printers.

I will give a small description of the Government printing office. As I think perhaps it might be of some interest to your readers: The building is four stories high; the press rooms being on the ground floor; the composing room on the second floor, and the binding and folding room on the third and fourth respectively. There are something over three thousand people working in this vast establishment of Uncle Sam's. The building covers about half of a very large block, and to see the employees coming out at five o'clock every evening, one would think it was an army, if they were dressed in uniform. You first go in the press room, and there you see every kind of press made from an old hand press to the new perfecting presses, and all going at once. Then you go to the composing room; there are men and women setting type as far as the eye can see; from here you go to the binding room, and you see unfinished books stacked from floor to ceiling; some commencing and some finishing. Here you find machinery of every kind used in turning books. Then you go next to the sewing room, occupied by girls stitching books, some with machines and some by hand. Then comes the folding room. This work is also done by girls. They are going from morning till night, folding forms, and there seems to be no decrease in the work to be folded. In this and the bindery they are about two years behind in their work. It is an immense plant, but is not large enough, by a good deal, to do the printing for the Government. X

It's money thrown away when a medicine doesn't cure you. It's your risk and your money. It's the money you have to buy away medicine for woman's ailments, except Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

With that, there's no risk—it's guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit you, it's the chronic weakness, pain, and all the other ailments that afflict womanhood, you have your money back. But you won't ask it—you'll be cured.

For 6 months, if you can't get better, the medicine that comes slowly, surely, and surely, is the "Favorite Prescription." It builds up and invigorates the system, regulates and promotes the proper function, and restores health and strength.

For everything that's known as a "female complaint," it's a positive specific.

If you're an overworked or suffering woman, it's a medicine that's made especially to help you—but you pay only for the help that you get.

On these terms it's the cheapest sold.

A new secret order called the Ancient Order of Lodge Americans has been organized at Lanseny, Michigan. Grand officers have been elected and arrangements perfected for the institutions of subordinate branches over the entire country. The principles of the order are stated to be: (1) the equal legal and political rights of all loyal Americans; (2) the prosecution as traitors of all armed forces not recognized by the Constitution; (3) the establishment of postal savings banks; (4) the absolute noninterference of any foreign power in American finances; (5) Governmental ownership or control of all natural monopolies; (6) the reclaiming of all unearned land grants, the same to be held as homesteads for actual settlers; (7) Government issue of all money in sufficient volume to transact the business of the country on a cash basis; (8) the referendum of all legislation of vital importance; (9) the exclusion of European criminal and pauper labor; (10) the making of bribery a capital crime, to be dealt with as treason against the National Government.

United States Senator William F. Vilas, in a letter to the Catholic Citizen concerning the A. P. A., says: "To enter a secret political society, to subvert one's political freedom to the belief of its authorities, unknown to the laws, means the citizen's surrender of the glory of manhood by self-surrender. Even if done with good purpose, the method is debasing and degrading. It is the way of a criminal in individual conduct. In political affairs it seeks to strike an unseen blow, which shall do injury to one's fellowmen." Mr. Vilas, in conclusion, says that the movement is a blow at religious liberty, and that every citizen should be opposed to its principles.

The most valuable paper that comes to this office is The New York World. Fearless and independent, working at all times for the best interests of the people, and never for the selfish ends of any ring or individual, supporting the right and commending the wrong wherever found, it becomes a great power for good throughout the land. Its policy is defined by its well known motto: "Equal Rights to All Special Favors to None." The reputation of the Weekly World as an unparalleled newspaper is fully established. It reaches for the very best and fullest news of the entire country, and gets it. The celebrated "Tariff Mite" articles are again running in their weekly and are creating widespread attention. Its miscellaneous pages are replete with articles of valuable and interesting information to every one. It is a large 12-page, 8-column paper for only $1.00 a year. We have succeeded in making special arrangements by which we can furnish The Advocate and The Weekly World one year both for only $1.50. Address THE ADVOCATE, Mt. Sterling, Ky. The Joel Foster residence on Howard avenue, recently damaged by fire, is being rapidly put in repair.

The headquarters of the military department of the South is to be established at Atlanta, Ga.

The House of Commons adjourned night till February 12 after passing the Parish Councils Bill.

Those who use Howe & Johnson's seven year old blue ribbon, 75¢ quid whisky do not have a gripper. 25-31

During the past week there were 254 business failures throughout the United States, as compared with 286 the corresponding week of last year.

Married, Monday evening at the home of the bride, Miss Annie, daughter of A. J. Ware, to S. J. Harber.

The Columbia Finance and Trust Company, Trustee of the New Farmers' Bank, is plaintiff in a long list of suits in our court at this term. This same Columbia Finance and Trust Company is exercising about as much discretion in the execution of its trust as "the bull in the china shop" might be expected to do.

Pretty little 5-year-old Maud Davis died a most horrible death from hydrophobia at St. Louis, Tuesday. Her case is remarkable for the fact that she died after an illness of only two days, from a scratch she received from playing with a pet dog nearly four years ago.

The Sterling Dancing Club entertained last Tuesday night at Commercial Club rooms, and those who attended say the occasion was a highly enjoyable one. It was given in honor of the Misses Black, two of Lexington's interesting young ladies.

The County Board of Supervisors of the tax books which has been in session for a number of days adjourned Thursday, to meet again to-morrow, when it will hear any objections that may be urged from parties who think their assessments on property should not be increased.

Three young men from this city concluded they would take a walk on Sunday afternoon. They extended their tramp to Sharpsburg before either would suggest a return toward home. Ten o'clock found three "dead tired" boys sneaking off to their beds after their 22 mile tramp, each wondering if there were three bigger fools in the State than they voted themselves to be.

The topographers or levelers of the Brass surveying were guests of the Day House Wednesday night, and The Herald man talked with them about the topography of the route. One of them said that the country over which they had passed between Caney and this place was all that could be desired, and added that on that day they had traveled further and found fewer impediments than on any day since leaving Morehead on the other side. He said if the rest of the route was as good as that covered up to Wednesday evening there could be no objection to it.—Hazel Green Herald.

Death has been busy among our old people during the last week or two. We are called upon to chronicle the demise of another. Mrs. Ann M. Hoad, aged 82 years, died on Saturday morning after a lingering illness, of catarrh of the stomach. Born in Fayette county, Ky., February 3, 1812, she married when she grew to womanhood, Judge Thos. Ross, and some thirty-five years ago she came to Mt. Sterling to make her home. Several children were born to her, five of whom died in infancy and but one, Mrs. W. W. Halbert, of Philadelphia, survives her. Mrs. Ross was long and widely known in our town, with whose interests she has for so long been identified.

Mrs. Halbert has been at her mother's bedside for several months past ministering to the wants of the aged one. Mr. Halbert will reach here to-day in time to attend the funeral which will be preached this afternoon at 3:30 by Elder W. T. Tibbs.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. L. Ellison, of Covington, is attending Circuit court.

Nathan Sorrell, of Bethel, was in the city Monday on business.

Rein A. Soobee, of Winchester, was in the city yesterday attending Court. Col. Phil Thompson, of Harrodsburg, was in the city last Thursday on business.

Mrs. Louise Andrews returned Saturday night last from her visit to Owingsville and Mt. Sterling.

Ed. Reis has returned from the East where he sold several carloads of ducks and geese at fair prices.

Col. John T. Haezrigg returned from Knoxville, Tenn., where he had been on legal business, Monday.

R. A. Chiles and W. C. Hoffman went to Paris Thursday night to see noted comedian, Nat C. Goodwin.

W. R. Lane, of Winchester, one of the leading insurance men of the State was in the city on business Monday.

F. H. Toewater, who is the Louisville buyer of the St. Louis Tobacco Manufacturers, Leggett & Myers, was in the city last Friday.

Mrs. M. A. Weedon, of Mt. Sterling, came down last week to visit her mother, Mrs. I. K. Vansant.—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

Mrs. John J. Cornelson will return home from Hot Springs to-day. Mr. Cornelson is in St. Louis and will return the latter part of the week.

Miss Minnie Lee Denton, of Bourbon county, is visiting her sister, Mary Ellen, in this city. She came up Saturday and will remain several days.

Mr. Charles H. Duty, we are glad to note, is so much improved as to be able to leave the hospital. He will be here with his friends and relatives to-morrow.

Mr. T. J. Bigstaff, who has been at Hot Springs for the past two months being treated for rheumatism returned home Monday evening greatly improved.

Mrs. Allen Prewitt and son, Brick, who went to Hills City, Kansas, to visit Henry B. Prewitt, returned on Wednesday. They brought with them the three-week-old motherless babe left to the care of an almost bankrupt husband and father by the untimely death of Mrs. H. R. Prewitt.

Mr. J. W. Hadden, of the Mt. Sterling Advocate, was in town last week. —Mrs. Ida Beall, of Mt. Sterling, has moved to Winchester to spend the winter. —Roy C. Kern, cashier of the Louisville Safety and Loan Company, receiver of the New Farmers' Bank, of Mt. Sterling, was in the city Thursday last on business. —Winchester Sun.

Ready.

The Columbia Finance & Trust Company having brought suits in this term of circuit court aggregating in amount more than $100,000 is ready to take judgment and then move on to the best business men hereby despoiling them of their hard earnings. This they will do if they can, to make not a dollar for the stock holders, said to be about 20 cents on the dollar for the depositors, and as large a sum as possible for themselves and their attorneys. How is this in the face of the statement of J. G. Trimble, temporary receiver which showed better things.

Less Wheat Sown.

Replies from 3,384 grain men and millers in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Kansas and Missouri, which make two-thirds of the entire winter wheat crop, to inquiries by C. A. King & Co., show a smaller average than last year. Michigan reports 25 per cent. less. The crop goes into winter in good condition. About three-eighths of the crop of 1893 has not been marketed yet.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. I. W. Williams, of Richmond, will preach at the Howard's Mill Baptist Church next Sunday morning.

Elder W. S. Keene, of Covington, has accepted the call of the congregation of the First Christian church at Winchester to serve as pastor.

Rev. Everett Gill, of Missouri, preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Gill has a style peculiarly his own, attractive and impressive. He engages the attention of his congregation from the beginning and holds it to the close. He will preach here again next Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. Joseph S. Felix, formerly a pastor in the Bracken Association, who has been laboring at Lynchburg, Va., the past few years, has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist church at Winchester. Mr. Felix was a favorite among Kentucky Baptist preachers, and the news of his return to Kentucky will be received with gladness.

A German.

The German given by Mrs. Charles Scott at her residence last evening, in honor of Miss Annie Johnson, of Mt. Sterling, was in every way an elegant affair. The collation was unusually large, and the young ladies looked especially beautiful in their becoming gowns. It was led by Mr. Lew Brown, and that young gentleman acquitted himself well. There were nine dances, and three of these were figures, the remaining six being favor dances.

Mr. Brown's features were all new and exceptionally pretty. The favors were new in design and many of them beautiful and costly. In one dance the favors were ribbons with numbers on them and these numbers were to come in good part when the drawing for the prize of the evening took place. The drawing came off, and, strange to say, the lucky number was held by the guest of honor, Miss Johnson. About eleven o'clock there was a temporary cessation of dancing and an elegant supper was served to the guests.

The first four was as follows: Messrs. and Misses Lou Brown and Annie Johnson, Frank Justice and Virginia Bowman, Elmer Bailey and Miss Bradley, William Sannell and Ada Raliff. Miss Anna Johnson, Miss Daisy Winston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott, and Messrs. Lou Brown and Steve Swift, Jr., will form a box party at the Park opera house to-night. Nat Goodwin is to appear. —A Gilded Fool.—Lexington Transcript, Jan. 11.

Sheriff's Sale for Taxes.

McCluskey building on South Mayaville street was sold for Mrs. A. E. Mitchell, $150.97 for taxes for 1891 and 1893.

R. A. Mitchell's residence on West Main street for taxes 1893, for $141.89, to Mrs. A. E. Mitchell. House and lot of Farmer Hawkins on Queen street, to J. W. Barnes, for $10.10.

Pat Dales' estate, farm on Hinkston of 31 acres, R. M. & T. K. Barnes for $12.50.

Two acres of land in Jeffersonville belonging to H. G. Bowling, taxes for 1891-2-3, to J. Coleman Rold for $13.75.

Sir James Crichton Browne, the expert on brain diseases, asserted in a popular lecture recently that insomnia is not attended with such disastrous consequences as is commonly supposed. It is not as dangerous as the solitude of the sufferer. He suggested that the brain of literary men, who are the most frequent victims, acquire the trick of the heart, which takes a dose a fraction of a second after each beat, and so manages to get six hours rest in twenty-four. Some brains, in cases of insomnia, sleep in sections, different brain centres going off duty in turn.

Miss Genevieve Ringo, daughter of Mr. H. H. Ringo, was riding horse back on Sunday afternoon, near home, when her horse took fright and in springing off she alighted on the ground so as to break a leg just above the ankle.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Stepsons.

Tom Steele has rented the Eli Hamilton farm and moved to it.

—Mrs. Will Alexander is quite sick with a gripper and neuralgia.

Mrs. Margaret Helwig, of Mt. Sterling, visited relatives here the past week.

Miss ——— Tipton, of Owingsville, visited her sister, Mrs. E. L. Payne, the past week.

Charley Henry rented 28 acres of land belonging to the J. Young heirs Saturday; price, $150.

Very little tobacco has been bought in this neighborhood; yet most farmers are without stripping.

William Cox has swapped his land here for property in Fleming county, and will move March 1st.

A. B. Carmichael sold his crop of tobacco to Kirkpatrick for 7 cents. Moses Karkick, George Turley, Joe Carpenter and John Kincaid, each, sold their tobacco to J. M. Rikhart for 8 cents.

Our old familiar enemy, in gripper, is in our midst once more, and among its victims are Mrs. George Thompson, Miss Lillie Thompson and a little son of the Karkick's, all are convalescent, however.

Bees, Ky.

Sam Hainline's hogs are dying with cholera.

Mt. Gilcard and Maccolonia churches are without pastors at present.

Mrs. Nancy Bartlett, of Clark county, is visiting her son, Richard Bartlett.

John Paisley has rented land from M. W. Anderson to be tilled in corn and tobacco.

Lewis Paisley, of Latham county, has been visiting his children in this section the past week.

Several hands are moving back to Clay City, as the big saw mill will start up again in a few days.

Notwithstanding the goose-bone and the hogs' mells and the false prophecies, we are having the nicest winter weather we have had for years.

Rev. H. L. Watts, who was called to preach at Maccolonia church last year and failed to fill his last three appointments on account of ill health, we are sorry to learn is now confined to his room with consumption.

As there were some reflections cast on Jud Barnett when Mose Barnett was arrested at his house, I will just say I have been acquainted with Jud Barnett, and John Barnett, his father, for years, and I have always known them as honest, law-abiding citizens, and that there is no den of desperadoes in this section of the county.

Dan Reffert, whose time has just expired in the State prison, broke into George Berry's meat house a few nights ago, took a overcoat that was in there, put the lock in his pocket, loaded up with meat and pulled out for parts unknown. Berry and his brother were searching for him, but at last account had not caught up with him. Dan is a hustler from 'way back.

AGRICULTURAL NOTES

Thick cream can be obtained colder than thin cream.

It is required abroad that apparatus possess both size and flavor.

It really costs no more to raise the kind of fowls in demand than the one not wanted.

Milk containing 92 per cent. of fat and 12 per cent. of solids is considered good milk.

Good farming means good roads, good fences, good gates, good buildings, well drained lands and clean fields.

Apples which have been frozen will be much less injured if kept from the air and allowed to thaw gradually.

It is said that the worms that eat rose leaves may be destroyed with a solution of whale oil soap or kerosene emulsion.

Recent trials have proved that an excellent quality of broom-corn can be grown in South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

The receipts of American apples in Liverpool up to November 31 only amount to 15,272 barrels, against 303,448 barrels to corresponding date last year.

An unusual large number of stores of superior quality were shipped from the West to the London market for the Christmas trade.

The recent report of the ultrate companies shows that all are making money, and that the supply of this fertilizer is practically inexhaustible.

In France currants and other small fruits are planted between the grape rows in small vineyards so as to make the most of the limited area.

The uniform quality of Danish butter and its aroma are the reasons for its popularity. It is all of the same grade, and is colored and salted alike.

Bran is one of the most valuable feeds in the dairy. Its merits are now so recognized that exporters are studying how to compress it for shipment abroad.

Australia soon expects to be a close competitor with California in supplying the Old World at least with dried and canned fruits. Peaches, pears, plums and apricots thrive in South Australia.

Holland excels the world in its average yield of potatoes. That country produces 177 bushels to the acre; Italy comes next with 164; Germany 121; France 102; the United States, 76.

The sum of $22,400 was paid for the bull Duke of Connaught at Lord Dunmore's sale in 1875. This is the largest sum ever reached in England at a public sale of short-horns.

It is good to plough the orchard when the soil is deep so that the roots can go down, but on the thin soil, where the roots keep near the surface, too many of them will be cut by the plough.

Feeding corn to sheep in winter is apt to produce a feverish condition of the system, while often the flock is troubled with humors or eruptions, which causes them to rub or gnaw their fleeces, causing in this way a loss of wool.

A recent computation of the exports of provisions from this country this year, compared with the previous year, showed a decrease of 26,000,000 pounds of pork. 114,000,000 pounds of lard, no change in hams and 181,000,000 decrease in bacon.

England buys of outsiders $50,823, 950 worth of butter in the course of the year. The figures and sources of supply with amounts are as follows: Denmark, $4,245,875; France, $15, 137,240; other countries, $16,779,640; from the colonies, $3,603,395.

A prize has been awarded in France for a good method of preserving potatoes. It consists in plunging the tubers in water containing 1 1/2 per cent. of sulphuric acid. The strength of the bath and the duration of immersion are according to the thickness of the skins.

In the grape growing countries of Europe the quality of the grapes has been found to depend largely upon the chemical composition of the soil. The sweetest grapes are produced by those soils containing the largest amount of mineral fertility, while too much nitrogen makes the fruit watery.

A French method of preserving grapes is to place a shoot bearing a couple of bunches of good grapes in a is felt the premature decline of American women. Habits of life have much to do with prevailing conditions. Their correction will improve coming generations, and corrective medicines have as much to do with the present. Dr. Fenger's Kidney and Backache Cure is a positive specific in all kidney complaints, gravel, stone in bladder, female weakness and irregularities, much on face, etc., improves appetite and digestion, corrects and restores to normal action all organs of the body and purifies the blood. bottle filled with water containing charcoal in solution. The bottles are then hung along the edges of notch shelves in a dry place. It is said that if the water be removed from time to time the grapes will keep until April in good condition.

An Australian farmer having eight acres of maize or corn, which yielded a heavy crop, laid the entire stalks, cut in three stacks, taking care to lay them all one way without crossing them. He weighted the stacks down with logs and stones. When it had settled he covered the whole with earth two feet deep, raised to a crown on top, which he thatched with corn stalks. The stacks came out in good condition and was greedily eaten by the cattle.

Prof. Henry has found that feeding hogs bone meal makes corn grow faster and that hard wood ashes are nearly as good as bone meal. The effect of the bone meal and ash was to save 28 percent of the corn required to produce 100 pounds of gain. There was about 50 per cent. more ash in the bones of the hogs receiving bone meal and hard wood ashes than in the bones of those not so fed.

HORSE NOTES.

Oats is a muscle-building food.

A good horse is never a bad color.

The time for promiscuous horse breeding is past.

The English horse market is good for good horses.

There are one-third as many donkeys as horses in Ireland.

More care and intelligence in breeding is essential to large profits.

Horsehoes came into use in the year 900, but were not made of iron until 480.

The Egyptian Government has appointed a commission to improve the native horses.

Sudden changes in temperature are more trying on horses than continued severe weather.

Corn is not so desirable a food as oats for horses, and is rarely used in the East or in Europe.

Curbs, spavins, and ring-bones in the majority of cases come from an improper bearing.

There is a strong movement in England for the abolition of check reins on working horses.

A good horse should be energetic, but not nervous, and in action a good walker with some style.

Large, stylish coaches and carriage horses are in demand by city people who care little for speed.

Do not break the constitution of the horse and destroy his ambition when breaking him to harness.

Either raise the better class of horses or quit the business, if you are in it for either money or pleasure.

It requires long, careful and persistent teaching to educate a horse to fill the requirements for a good road horse.

European army officials will have use of our trotters. They demand larger and finer animals and pay liberally for them.

Cattle properly cared for at weaning time will be worth twice as much when two years old as those which are neglected.

Fire at Richmond, Ind., Wednesday morning destroyed the Starr piano works. Loss, $100,000.

The Norton Iron Works at Ashland, Ky., has resumed operations, giving employment to 600 men.

At Atlanta, Thursday, Lewis Redwine pleaded guilty to embezzling $103,118 from the Gate City National Bank. He was given six years in the pen.

D. A. Baker, Cashier for the First National Bank at Norfolk, Va., killed himself Wednesday morning. His accounts are straight. Business worry had unsettled his mind.

Judge Van Brunt, of the Supreme Court, of the New York, signed the order committing Edward M. Field to the custody of the Sheriff of Kings county. This virtually means that he will be tried for forgery. The gist of the Judge's order is to the effect that upon certification of the Superintendent of the asylum that Field has regained his reason, he will have to stand trial.

A bold diamond robbery occurred at Stillwater, Mich. The driver of the Adams Express Company rig was delivering packages, and in his sleigh had a package of diamonds from Cincinnati addressed to C. Henning. The driver stopped to deliver another package, and when he returned found Henning's package broken and the diamonds gone. The stones are valued at $100.

Dr. Kerr B. Tupper, pastor of the First Baptist church, Denver, Col., at the weekly meeting of the Baptist ministers of that city announced his belief that in the near future there would be an organized union of the Baptist and Christian churches, under the name of the latter: that he was now in communication with prominent members of both denominations on the subject, and that a part of his business on a contemplated trip to the East is to confer with them in the matter.

In the 23-inch mill of the Carnegie Works at Homestead, Pa., the experiment of rolling flat beams from aluminum for Government vessels is being tried. The first beam was rolled, but was not satisfactory. The aluminum was heated just hot enough to char a pine board, and then submitted to the rolls. In the second pass it collapsed on the rolls and broke two boxes, and the experiment was postponed until later in the week. This is the first experiment of the kind ever tried in the Homestead Steel Works.

Merriss Sakoiki, a Russian, now of Chicago, tells a tale of a divorce bill filed there. He states that at the age of 15 his mother enticed him to the town of Sialk, in his native land, blindfolded him and before he was aware of it he was married to a girl upon whose face he had never looked before. His mother, he says, got about $50 for bringing about the marriage, and he got a bride whose charms were few, but they have never lived together here, he says, and he asks that the marriage be annulled.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

Embry & Fox sold, to Carrithers & Beard, of Lexington, four sugar mules for $500.

Andy English sold the past week to Mr. Kending, of Philadelphia four fine run-downers for $300 each.

I. C. and N. P. VanMeter sold their Fayette county farm of 315 acres to their brother, Sol P. VanMeter, $105 per acre.

John Ball, of Woodford county, sold to J. H. Kirk, of Marion county, eighteen of the best yearling year mules in the State for about $100 per head.

Farris & Whitley have recently bought small bunches of feeders from parties at from $2.75 to $3.50. They bought five 900-lb. cattle from T. G. Cotton, at $2.75.

Farris & Whitley bought of T. P. Reid a bunch of about 100 pounds average, at $4.50, and Andrew Whitley bought of Mills, of Lincoln, twenty head, same weight, at same price. —Danville Advocate.

A barn containing 24 cows and calves and one horse, the property of William Warfield, the wealthy Fayette county stock-broder, was burned Tuesday night. The barn was valued $3,000 with 2,000 insurance. The cattle were worth $2,500; not insured.

COURT DAY.

Yesterday being the opening day of Circuit Court, as well as County Court day, there was a large crowd in town, notwithstanding the rain and mud. But little business reported by the merchants.

There were about 800 cattle on the market. The best cattle brought fair prices, ranging in price from 34 to 35 cents per pound.

W. P. Gay, of Clark county, bought of Allen McCormick 13 cattle, averaging 1095 lbs., at $3.65. T. H. Clay, of Bourbon, bought of Allen and Trimble 40 cattle, averaging 1100 lbs., at 34 cents.

Walter Sharp, of Bath county, bought 20 cattle of Allen and Trimble, averaging 1150, at 33 cents. The horse and mule market was almost a complete failure.

HORSE AND TRACT.

Moquette, 2:10, will join McHenry's stable in May.

Sau Pedro, 2:14, is a road-horse in New York now.

Anderson's Nightingale, 2:10, will be in George Starr's stable this year. Kentucky Breeders meeting at Lexington will give $70,000 in purses this year.

William Robinson, of Danville, Ky., has sold A. E. Cole, of Hudson, Mass., a 3-year-old colt by Nuthurst for $1,200. This fellow is fast, having paced a half mile season in 1:03.

The syndicate that owns Axtell reports the earnings of that horse for the three years it has owned him as being $170,000. This leaves a very comfortable profit on the $105,000 paid for Axtell.—Horse World.

Doubtless believing the old saying that "a fair exchange is no robbery," A. H. Moore and George H. Ketcham have exchanged stallion services and the former will breed Margaret S., 2:12, by Director, to Robert McGregor while the Ohio breeder sends Nyauza, 2:15, by Robert McGregor, to the court of Director.

Five roadsters are hard to find and bring good money. Our trotting horse breeders should pay more attention to individuals. Bred to a horse of good style and if the produce does not trot fast, you will have a horse that will bring big money for the road.

Britain's Great Storm.

The most violent storm of recent years in the British Islands was that of November 16 to 20, 1893, in which the wind velocity was the greatest ever recorded for that portion of the globe. In an account to the Royal Meteorological Society, Mr. C. Harding states that in the Orkneys the wind velocity reached ninety-six miles an hour for one hour on the evening of November 16, and was over ninety miles an hour for five consecutive hours. At Holyhead a velocity of eighty-nine miles an hour was recorded, eighty miles or more an hour being maintained for eleven hours, sixty-five miles or more an hour—the force of a whole gale—for thirty-one hours, and a mean of fifty-four miles an hour for four and a half days. Many of the gusts were at the rate of 115 miles an hour, and in a squall at Fleetwood the rate reached 120 miles an hour.

The total reported loss of life on the coast was 335. The storm has been traced from the neighborhood of the Bahamas on November 7 across the Atlantic and over the British Islands to Central Europe on November 20.

One reason the American crew of President Polk's war vessel Nitroeroy left the Brazilian service was that the ship, unfit for fighting, was loaded down with gunpowder, dynamite and wool, and the natives persisted in smoking aboard. Many of the sailors have arrived at Southampton, homeward bound.

Evian Settle, of Owen County, as well as "Bill Owens, of Scott county, proposes to give the Silver-tongued tassel for the Democratic nomination for Representative from the Ashland district. There will be some lively political wool pulling done in that neck of the woods in the not distant future.

The Coming South.

An expert manufacturer of cotton goods, clothes and yarns, Robert F. Barker, of Manchester, England is now in the South, after a thorough tour among the New England factories. At Charleston, a few days ago, he abandoned himself to the interviewer and gave expression to opinions which, by reason of the gentleman's experience, must attract attention. He asserts that the South will ultimately outstrip the North in the manufacture of the yarns. He emphasizes this by the declaration that the climate of the South is better adapted to the work. All that is necessary, he declares, is the erection of the factories and the importation of the operative —Cincinnati Post.

Sterling, Montgomery county, Ky., expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, the following property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the taxes of the following named parties for the year 1893, to-wit:

J. H. McBrat, Distilling Company for $246.70, about four acres of land, on Hinkton creek, Montgomery county, Ky., and known as the J. H. McBrat Distilling Company, and is bounded on south, east and north by land of John T. Woodford, west by Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad, and contains about four acres of land—more or less. Also, another tract in Montgomery county, Ky., on Hinkton creek, and bounded on south and east by B. F. Cockrell, north by John T. Woodford, west by Mt. Sterling & Levee Turnpike road, and known as the M. A. Gilson tract and contains about 24 acres—more or less. For more particular description see deed book, No. 48, page 264, in Montgomery County Clerk's office.

J. H. Mize about 12 acres of land, on waters of Aaron's Run, Montgomery county, Ky., and bounded on the north by Higgins Caywood and J. W. Henty, east by land of Brockway and west by Thomas Denton. Term cash.

Witness this 4th day of December, 1893.

JNO. C. RICHARDSON, Sheriff Montgomery Co.

All parties who have not paid their taxes for 1893, may expect to have their personality levied on at once. I have given my last notice.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE

—OF—

BLUE GRASS FARM!

I will on Tuesday, January 16, 1894, sell to the highest bidder, a fine Blue Grass Farm. Sale on the premises, near Jody, Montgomery County, Ky., on the Mayville pike, five miles North of Mt. Sterling. Said farm contains 182 acres of fine land and can be found in this section. It lays well, is well watered, is in high state of cultivation, has on it two or three tenant houses all in good repair. There is an Orchard of fine fruit on the farm, and altogether it is one of the most desirable places for a home anywhere. Title perfect. The fact that it is convenient to churches and schools will undoubtedly draw buyers. The sale is positive, and the highest bidder gets the farm. Sale to begin at 10:30 o'clock a. m. sharp. TERMS—made known on day of sale. Possession given March 1st, or sooner if desired. J. W. BURBANK, Assignee of J. M. AUSTINSON.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ASCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quick nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. P. KINCHELOE, CORWY, Ark.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
